Code of conduct is emailed to each player on completion of this registration form and is also available for viewing at <https://www.knoxunited.com/codeofconduct>. The code of conduct reflects the highest standards of public behaviour and the expectations of the club administration. The club is under no obligation to accept applicants as members, and past behaviour may be taken into account when an application for membership is received.

The code of conduct is not designed to suppress passion or commitment for the club or the team is in place to ensure that club participants understand that there is a line which divides passion and offensive behaviour.

Any non compliance or breach of the code of conduct will be referred to the Executive Committee of the Knox United Soccer Club for further action. Action may include explanation of the club's code of conduct, including identification of the section of the code of conduct not being complied with.

If a player, parent or guardian has a grievance with any aspect of their team, then they are to raise it with their team manager, who will then raise the issue with the coach.
